Designer Gina Ferraraccio (a Lucky favorite) turns out the most beautifully chic eco shoes. Each style in her label is made from planet-friendly materials, such as sueded microfiber and canvas, which she constructs into sleek styles, like these sexy peep-toe heels.

BUTLER BAGS

These ingenious bags are built to keep you organized: A grid of compartments lines the bottom, creating separate spots for your cellphone, keys, wallet, a small bottle of water—you name it. What's more, this style, made from crinkled patent leather, can be carried as a shoulder bag or, just by tucking the strap inside, a sturdy day clutch.
